Streamlined International Applications Accepted For Filing

Section 214 Applications (47 C.F.R. § 63.18); Section 310(B)(4) Requests

Unless otherwise specified, the following procedures apply to the applications listed below:

The international Section 214 applications listed below have been found, upon initial review, to be acceptable for filing and subject to the streamlined processing procedures set forth in Section 63.12 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.12. These applications are for authority under Section 214 of the Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 214, (a) to transfer control of an authorized carrier or to assign a carrier's existing authorization; and/or (b) to become a facilities-based international common carrier; and/or (c) to become a resale-based international common carrier.

Pursuant to Section 63.12 of the rules, these Section 214 applications will be granted 14 days after the date of this public notice (see 47 C.F.R. § 1.4 regarding computation of time), and the applicant may commence operations on the 15th day, unless the Commission has informed the applicant in writing, within 14 days after the date of this public notice, that the application, on further examination, has been deemed ineligible for streamlined processing.

Communications between outside parties and Commission staff concerning these applications are permitted subject to the Commission's rules for "permit-but-disclose proceedings." See 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206. An application can be removed from streamlined processing only in the sound discretion of Commission staff. The filing of comments or a petition to deny will not necessarily result in an application being deemed ineligible for streamlined processing.

The petitions for declaratory ruling listed below are for authority under Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 310(b)(4), to exceed the 25 percent foreign ownership benchmark applicable to common carrier radio licensees. The requested rulings will be granted 14 days after the date of this public notice, effective the next day, unless the application is formally opposed or the Commission has informed the applicant in writing, within 14 days of the date of this public notice, that the application, on further examination, has been deemed ineligible for streamlined processing. For this purpose, a formal opposition shall be sufficient only if it is received by the Commission and by the applicant within 14 days of the date of this public notice and its caption and text make it unmistakably clear that it is intended to be a formal opposition.

Copies of all applications listed here are available for public inspection in the FCC Office of Public Affairs Reference and Information Center, located in room CY-A257 at the Portals 2 building, 445 12th Street SW, Washington DC 20554. The center can be contacted at (202) 418-0270. People with Disabilities: To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice), 202-418-0432 (tty). All applications listed are subject to further consideration and review, and may be returned and/or dismissed if not found to be in accordance with the Commission's rules, regulations, and other requirements.

We request that comments on any of these applications refer to the application file number shown below.

Airadigm Communications, Inc.

Transfer of Control

Current Licensee: Airadigm Communications, Inc.

FROM: Wisconsin Wireless Communication Corporation

TO: TELEPHONE AND DATA SYSTEMS, INC.

Application filed for consent to the transfer of control of international section 214 authorization, ITC-214-19960621-00262 (Old File No. ITC-96-339), held by Airadigm Communications Inc. (Airadigm), from Wisconsin Wireless Communication Corporation (WWCC) to Telephone and Data Systems Inc. (TDS). On September 23, 2011, TDS acquired control of Airadigm pursuant to a Plan of Reorganization that was approved by an order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin (Order rel. Oct. 27, 2006, Case No. 06-10930-11), and confirmed by the final order entered by the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. See In re Airadigm Communications, 519 F.3d 640 (7th Cir. 2008); In re Airadigm Communications v. FCC, 547 F.3d 763 (7th Cir. 2009); In re Airadigm Communications, 616 F.3d 647 (7th Cir. 2010). TDS now holds an approximate 62.75% controlling interest in TDS and by the United States of America holds an approximate 37.25% minority interest. The parties obtained Commission consent to the transfer of control Airadigm's Broadband PCS licenses prior to the consummation of the transaction (see ULS File No. 0004717080), but failed to obtain prior Commission consent to the transfer of control of the international section 214 authorization.

TDS is a publicly traded Delaware corporation. TDS is controlled by a voting trust whose trustees are LeRoy T. Carlson, Jr. (President TDS), Walter C.D. Carlson (Chairman TDS), Prudence E. Carlson, and Dr. Letitia G.C. Carlson, who are brothers and sisters and are all U.S. citizens. The voting trust controls 53.6% of the voting power of TDS's total shares that vote in matters other than the election of directors and 94.4% of the Series A Common Shares which elect eight (8) of TDS's twelve directors. No other individual or entity holds 10 percent or greater direct or indirect equity or voting interest in TDS or Airadigm.
